

Environmental Toxicology

Lawrence K. Duffy, 246 WRRB, lkduffy@alaska.edu, 474-7525

Instructor:

Students are encouraged to contact the Office Hours

Monday and Thursday following lectures. However, st

Lecture: Tuesdays and Thursdays, 11:30 am - 1:00 pm, Murie 103

Textbook: Fundamentals of Ecotoxicology 4th Edition (ISBN 978-14-666-58-2293) by Michael C Newman,

Environmental and ecotoxicology and Course Description. This is a core course with its focus on the basic components of environ

Learning Outcomes:

- increase understanding of biochemistry with respect to environmental contaminants
- increase understanding of the chemical-biotic interactions
- understand the structure and function of ecosystems

Student

gain an understanding of how biota alters the structure and dynamics of
of the North

Course Goals:

understand the basic principles of environmental toxicology

Understand

Instructional Methods:

Grades

will be based on the student's performance in the course each (10 points to present + 5 minutes for questions) will count as 100 or 200

Orals:

The oral presentations (10-15 minutes each)

Language for Syllabi

The Board of Regents have clearly stated in BOP Policy that discrimination in any form including but not limited to

by contacting the IAF Health & Counseling

1) You may access confidential counseling by Police Department at

3) You may file a criminal complaint by contacting the University account of the family an easy people raise or people to list our dreams

Stacy's Start & Dean Finley
Stacy's Start & Dean Finley
Stacy's Start & Dean Finley

ed again they're indistinguishably distinct from humanity" the PETA film's opening "Some strains of

