

EMERITI RECOGNITION

MS. DIANE E. RUESS

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR OF LIBRARY SCIENCE, EMERITUS

Ms. Diane E. Ruess served the University of Alaska Fairbanks during her teaching, research and public service from 1989 to 2012.

She has been cited in the development of library science at the University of Alaska Fairbanks. She has taught the core curriculum in library and information science, and has been a member of the UAF, UAF, and the Alaska State Library Association. Her research, writing, and teaching have been in the areas of library science, information science, and library education. Her recognition of the importance of technology in libraries and information science has been a major factor in the development of the campus-wide information science program.

She has published and presented at national and international conferences and has been a member of the American Library Association, the Association of University Librarians, and the Alaska State Library Association. She has been a member of the Alaska State Library Association since 1991.

in view

Changes in the library profession have led to the need for new skills and abilities. Ms. Ruess has been a leader in the development of the information science program at the University of Alaska Fairbanks. She has been a member of the Alaska State Library Association since 1991. She has been a member of the American Library Association, the Association of University Librarians, and the Alaska State Library Association. She has been a member of the Alaska State Library Association since 1991.

The University of Alaska Fairbanks expresses its appreciation to Ms. Diane E. Ruess for her service to the State of Alaska and the University.

