

Geography

01

of lab p r e

ilding o

Room 36

of teleph

email a

tah@al

Course designed for life biologists, fisheries, and forest management. This course covers the use of spatial data in the field. It is on obtaining and using spatial data in the field. It is on obtaining and using spatial data in the field.

If you have your own computer, you can work with a partner. If you have your own computer, you can work with a partner.

Week 1

- Course objectives:
- 1) To learn the basic concepts of GIS.
 - 2) To understand the concepts independent of any particular software.
 - 3) To learn enough hands-on computer lab experience.
 - 4) To learn about the use of GIS in Alaska and other geographical areas.

NRM 38 F

Grades 1

12

24

alaska.edu/

points each =

20

Orig

Orig

Class

Total

Final grade

> 48 total

445 485

400 444

serv s C,4 n av a V ic d z
w c re:74

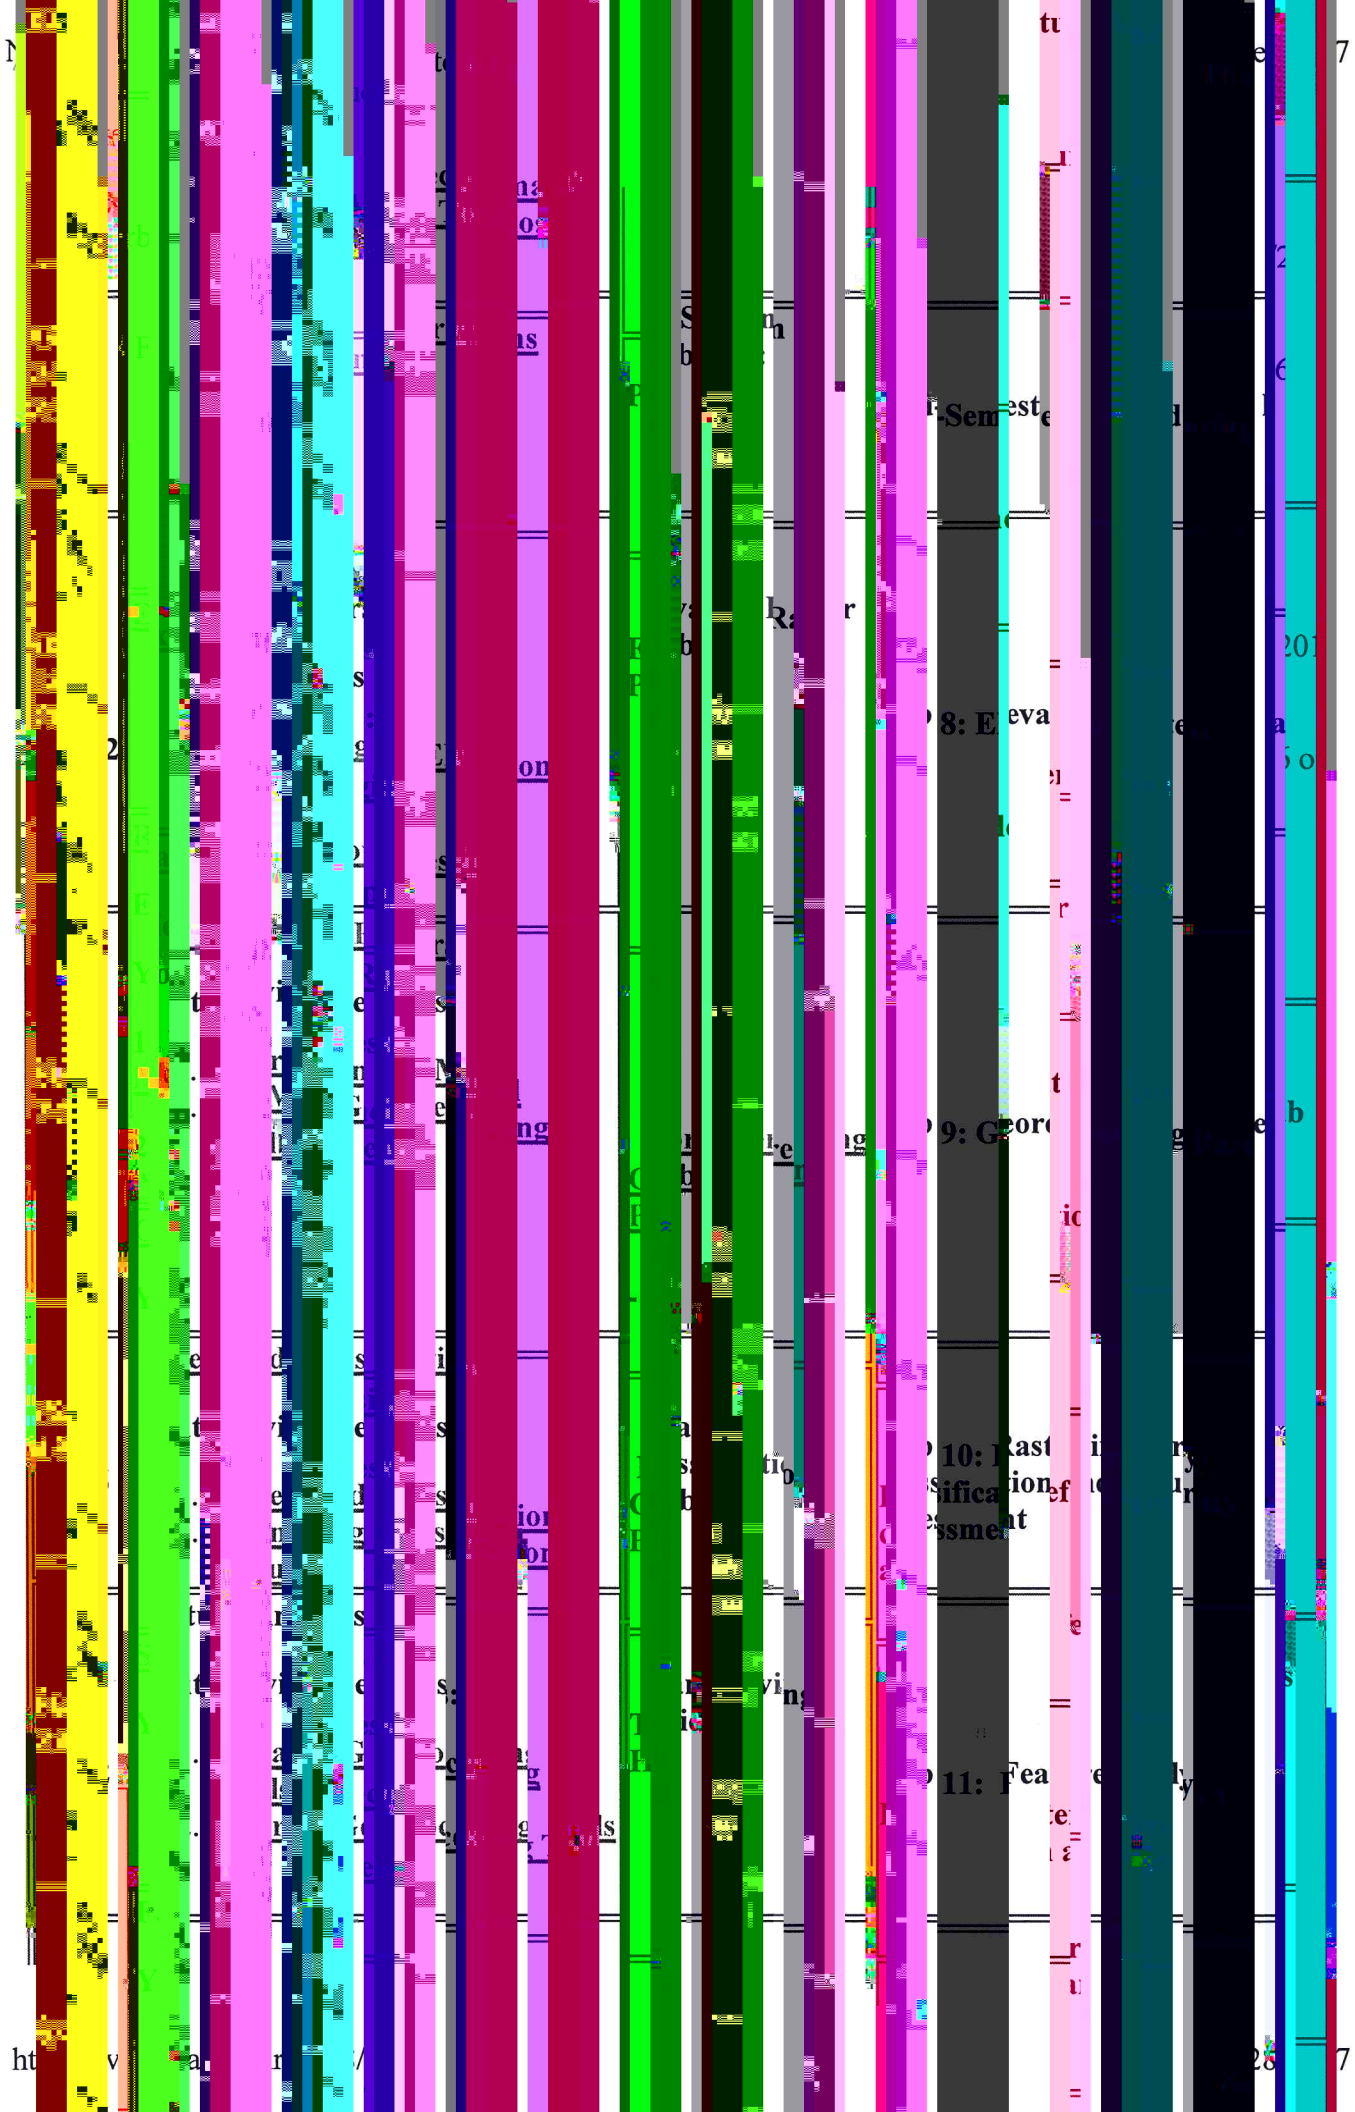

of

o1: th e p A G
In

o2: e e as o I Fr

o3: S au te S e
Pr G ec

Ma layout

p La

: M

m ng lab

dur

xa