Psyche, the Greek immortal G O D D E S S of the S O U L, depicted as a Butterfly winged goddess, was once mortal and stunningly beautiful which brought upon her the wrath of A p h r o d i t e the goddess of L O V E . A p h r o d i t e persuades E R O S (A m o r) to visit Psyche and make her fall in love with the "most contemptible of all man". But A M O R falls in love himself with Psyche and hides Psyche in a safe place where he visits her at night – doing what lovers do whispering sweet nothing to his beloved. - A m o r cannot reveal his identity to Psyche and she must never seek the truth about W H O he is if their love is to remain. Psyche reveals her lover's identity and A m o r abandons her. Psyche distraught tries to commit suicide and from there on wanders the land until she arrives at the abode of A p h r o d i t e. T h e r e she becomes A p h r o d i t e's slave and endures all sufferings bestowed upon her by A p h r o d i t e. T h r o u g h o u t her trial and tribulations A m o r continues to cherish her and makes the U N B E A R A B L E B E A R A B L E . church perspective PATERNOSTER

... Our Father, who art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy Name.
Thy kingdom comes.
Thy will be done,
On earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
As we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
But deliver us from evil.
[For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever.
Amen.]

nature of the world and mankind

There once was the CHURCH to guide them to heaven ... there is the psychiatrist to study the soul and FIX what is broken....

And there is... in the corners of the eye lurking the MAD Scientist. The Hyde of Dr. Jekyll, the DR. Moreau, the Dr.
Frankenstein. and Dr. Faustus.
