

Sub

FORMAT 1

resolution. If not, explain why not.

Offerings above the level of approved programs must be approved in advance by the Provost.

ALL SIGNATURES MUST BE OBTAINED PRIOR TO SUBMISSION TO THE GOVERNANCE OFFICE

		Date
--	--	------	--

Outline Syllabus

Project Controls

1. Course information:

Project Controls, CE F653C, One credit,

Prerequisites: Recommended Admission to the Graduate Certificate in Construction Management Program.

Location and Meeting Time will be specific to each offering of the course.

2. Instructor (and if applicable, Teaching Assistant) information:

Instructors Name, Office Location, Office Hours, as well as Telephone and Email contact information will be specific to each offering of the course.

3. Course readings/materials:

Handout of the instructor assigned materials. Also, selections from Meredith and Mantel, Project Management, Seventh Edition, John Wiley, Chapters 10, 11, and 12. Also, selections from Project Manage-1g-1(t)--1(ohn)5Tf D t.

Introduction. What are project controls and how are they used? How the control methods varies with